

Join the Canadian Federation of Poets family as we embark on a journey to:

UNITE poets, organizations, publishers and persons interested in poetry and related subjects for fellowship and mutual support in promoting the creative importance of poetry in the national and global environments.

PROMOTE an improvement in the welfare, recognition and professional standing of practicing poets in the community.

PROMOTE activities which will increase the appreciation of poetry and publications.

STIMULATE activities towards the growth of Canadian culture and public interest in such matters.

ESTABLISH, promote, support and encourage poets, poetry organizations, venues, events, and other institutions and organizations engaged in activities connected with poetry and poetry appreciation.

PROVIDE a community portal for the sharing and dissemination of information and ideas.

PUBLISH, print, distribute and support books, magazines, pamphlets and publications of all kinds devoted to the interest of poetry and poets.

IMPROVE the growth of emerging and established poets through educational activities and programs.

PROMOTE, encourage, and co-operate with societies having similar objectives.

ENCOURAGE the establishment of chapters/Federations and Affiliate Federations within Canada and the world.
