

Chapters

Presents...

An Afternoon With Oakville Poets

in Celebration of Poetry Month

Sunday April 24 at 2:00 pm
at The Oakville Chapters 310 North Service Rd. W
Featuring the following local poets...

Eliza Enola

A prominent figure in the Oakville poetry community is the organizing force of the Poetry Café, coordinator of Visual Verse, and founder of Pelican. She is an active member of Inland Writers, SWOR, CPW, and Oakville Arts Council. Her first book, which consists of photo-graphics and poems, is titled Wingspan.

Martin e Durkin

His first book of poetry, Light of Glass, was published in 2002 and was mentioned by CBC Radio One's Good Country Checkup. 2002 Christmas Reading List. He has appeared in both Canadian and American chapbooks such as, Focus Area, and American Immigrant Quarterly. His second book, The Secret of Glass, is published by Hidden Branch Press, 2019.

Dorna Langevin

In the co-author of Exile notes and poems have appeared in Art, The Arctic with Review, Front, Grain, Wine and many other Canadian and American journals. Her first book, Experiencing in the Dark, was published by Watershed Books in 1990. In 2004, she was named poet in the Star Best of Poetry. Recently published, The Good Language of Bird.

Kate Marshall Flaherty

Has won several awards, including two in Word Magazine, Niagara Author's Assoc., Southwold Arts Council, Canadian Poetry Assoc., The Ontario Poetry Society, and Cashberry Tree Press. She has been published in anthologies, including Oval Victory, Cherish our Home, South, Other Voices, Heartbeats of the Future, and Roots & Beyond. HBP will launch her first book, Tidal Expectations, this fall.

Tracy Lynn Repchuk

Author of The Poetry of Silence has been involved in poetry most of her life. She has participated in hundreds of speaking engagements, and shared her poetry all over North America. She appears in anthologies such as Cherish your Heritage, Heartbeats of the Future, Mythology of the Future, and others. She is the president and founder of the Canadian Federation of Poets, and president and editor of Poetry Canadiana.

Richard Grove

Is the founder and president of Hidden Branch Press, which publishes various books, anthologies, and poetry contests. Grove focuses his spare time on building global literary relations with other countries by the use of poetry collaborations such as, No Less Lost, and Between Swans, created with the Canada Cuba Literary Alliance.

Sponsored by:

Chapters